

CHECKLIST START OF STUDY

COLLECT DOCUMENTS

Letter of admission, enrollment certificate from your university, identification document (e.g. ID card or passport), proof of health insurance (e.g. certificate from your health insurance company), certificates such as language certificates

PAY SEMESTER FEE

The semester fee can vary from semester to semester. Therefore, find out the exact amount before you start your studies and transfer the amount or set up a direct debit in time.

ORIENTATION WEEK BENEFIT

Orientation week is an important key week to help you get started in your studies. It is therefore worthwhile to take part in as many events as possible during the O-week. Find out about the dates of the events in good time.

GET STUDY MATERIAL

Laptop, smartphone, writing pads, highlighters: look for special offers and price promotions to buy study materials as cheaply as possible. For example, discount stores, electronics retailers and stationery stores regularly offer discounts.

GET BADGES AND ACCESSES

Get your login or access data as early as possible, as they are extremely important even before the official start of your studies, especially the e-mail access.

DATES & DEADLINES NOTE

There are a lot of important dates for your studies. Keeping them in a digital calendar with a reminder function will take a lot of pressure off you, give you planning security and ensure that you have a clear head for your studies.

BUILD SOCIAL NETWORK EARLY

Get active in university or program-related Facebook groups, join a regional sports club, attend off-campus events like a city festival, participate in locally oriented webinars.
