Bonn is a modern, lively and cosmopolitan city with a 2,000 year history. Beethoven's birthplace lies on the banks of the Rhine and is surrounded by beautiful nature. Among the approximately 300,000 residents there are more than 34,000 students who characterize the cityscape in the university district and in the city. Cafés, bistros and meeting places of all kinds are the main attractions of the Bonn scene.

Your Staytoo Apartment at Rochusstraße 65 offers you more than just a place to sleep. You have your own apartment, but still the community and the fun you want from a shared flat. The distances to Bonn city center and the university are not far: you can easily reach everything by bike or public transport. In addition, you will find in the neighborhood everything you need to live.

The building

In addition to your cozy apartment, you will find common areas in the Staytoo house so that you can meet up with others, celebrate, watch films or train together. And of course there is a separate launderette for all residents. Take a look at our house online or arrange a viewing appointment at:
